

Participial Phrases, Part 3

A. Delete two words in the sentence in Column B to make a shorter sentence. Write your new sentence in Column C.

A. Question	B. Longer answer	C. Shorter answer
1. Who is she?	She's just a small-town girl who is living in a lonely world.	She's just a small-town girl living in a lonely world.
2. Which train did she take?	She took the midnight train that was going anywhere.
3. What do you see?	I see strangers who are waiting up and down the boulevard.
4. What else do you see?	I see their shadows that are searching in the night.
5. What else do you see?	I see streetlight people who are living just to find emotion.
6. What else do you see?	I see streetlight people who are hiding somewhere in the night.

B. Combine the two sentences in Column B to make one sentence. Write your new sentence in Column C.

A. Question	B. Answer in two sentences	C. Answer in one sentence
What does everybody want?	Everybody wants a thrill. They are paying anything to roll the dice.	(Put a comma after the word thrill .)

C. Read all the questions in Column A and the answers in Column C aloud with a partner.

All the sentences in Column C are from the song "Don't Stop Believin'" by Journey.